TOOLS FOR THE SHOP HARDWARE FOR THE HOME

There is such a small price difference between the disappointing and the satisfying kind of hardware that it never pays to take a chance. Manufacturers of quality hardware generally sell to hardware stores exclusively, and that is a very good reason why it pays to shop there. An article must be up to standard to meet requirements of stores advertising in the Buyers Guide.

Army Officer In Blast Net Given Liberty On $5000 Bail

Preliminary Examination To Be Held Sometime During This Week

When friends in the Owens river valley at Big Pine and Bishop, headed by Wilfred Watson, came to his rescue, Major C. P. Watson, retired army officer, who is charged with illegal possession of high explosives in Contra Costa county and is suspected of being implicated in the dynamiting of the Owens river-Los Angeles aqueduct, was released from custody with the posting of $5000 cash bail. The money was telegraphed to Martinez and Watson was freed to return directly to his ranch near Big Pine.

Trial This Week

With the release of the defendant, Thomas C. Boone of Modesto, his attorney, also returned to Big Pine and Rodgers and Bray, engaged as counsel for the defense, declined today to comment on the case, contenting themselves with the simple announcement that nothing could be said authoritatively until the preliminary examination which District Attorney A. B. Tinsley stated yesterday will be held some time next week.

Now that the authorities are had time to catch up a little with their sleep some interesting details of the hectic all-day-all-night all-day trip from Martinez to Bakersfield to Bishop and return are coming to light.

Undersheriff W. M. Neale, who with Clyde Laird traveled by automobile exactly 1064 miles in thirty-eight hours, is perfectly willing to concede to Sheriff Tom Hutchinson of Inyo county, all the honors of a fast driver. Following an all-night ride from Bakersfield, Neale and Laird reached Bishop at 6 o'clock Thursday morning to rouse Sheriff Hutchinson and go with him to take Watson into custody at Big Pine.

'The Chief Glory, Honor of a Nation, Is Liberty'

One hundred and fifty-one years of American independence! A century and a half of the greatest opportunity and the most successful for the individual citizen that the world has ever seen.

A free land of free men! Be you appreciate what that means to you! Europe is in a pathetic muddle of trouble because it has practically no freedom, either for nations or for individuals.

There is no INDEPENDENCE DAY over there! Europe is in a pathetic muddle of trouble because it wars. Wars of the past and wars of the future. Death and destruction behind them. Death and destruction facing them.

Part Of Richmond Police In Mooney Case Recalled In New Dynamite Arrest

Impending trial in Contra Costa county courts of Major Watson, Inyo county rancher on a charge of illegal possession of high explosives recalls to the minds of authorities the famous Tom Mooney trials of thirteen years ago and is the second time in recent years that such a charge has been brought up for trial.

Thomas Mooney, now serving a reduced sentence of life in San Quentin prison following his conviction for first degree murder in connection with the Preparedness Day dynamiting outrage in San Francisco in 1916, was taken into custody at Point San Pablo in Richmond late one night in December of 1913 along with two other men named Brown and Hanlon, former linemen in the employ of the Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

Local Police Warned
Richmond police had been tipped off to the peculiar actions of three men who beached a row-boat after dark and went away. The police investigated and found the boat loaded with a quantity of articles for which there was no lawful accounting, such as canvas gloves, paper bags that could be worn over shoes, extra pairs of shoes, a shot gun painted aluminum, a rifle equipped with a maxim silencer, revolvers, dry cells, the terminals of which had been connected and soldered and a quantity of wire to which regular intervals were firmly attached fulminate of mercury caps together with an alarm clock.

Mooney Captured
Mooney, a labor leader for several years and implicated in several cases of strike violence, and Brown and Hanlon, who were on strike against the P. G. & E. during the labor trouble then existing, were captured by the police when they returned to the boat.

They were brought to jail in Martinez and prosecuted on the illegal explosive charge by Judge A. B. McKenzie, then District Attorney. Three trials were held before the late Judge R. H. Lattimer and Judge A. J. Buckles of Fairfield. In all three trials the jury failed to agree and Mooney and his co-defendants were eventually discharged.

Had Mooney been convicted he would have been sentenced to San Quentin for not to exceed five years. Three years later he was sent to prison to hang and escaped the noose only when Governor W. D. Stephens commuted the sentence to life.

Atlantic Aces Are Revealed "Just Folks" In Interview

By ROBERT J. PREW (By Universal Service)
PARIS, July 2—While Commander Richard E. Byrd, Dapper, smiling and fresh, dressed in a uniform with medals and ribbons on his breast, was talking to correspondents at the head of the staircase in the Hotel Continental, this afternoon, I was admitted to the bedrooms of the other flyers of expedition and obtained three "bed room interviews."

In the first of the three bedrooms of the suite, Lieut. George Noville was splashing luxuriously in a tepid bath. "Don't let's talk about the flight," he cried. "We got to get this club lunch. Do you know who can get me a fresh shirt, collar, underwear and socks? Where can I get some ordinary civilian clothes for this afternoon?"

"No more French mobs for me. They nearly killed us at the Gare St. Lazare."

A two days' growth of stubble hair adorned his chin.

"Wait while I borrow a razor," he said, hopping out of the bath. Bernt Balchen, in the next room, was looking for underwear but managed to produce a safety razor, and two minutes later Noville was properly cleaned up and ready for the events of the day.

"Now let me have a cigarette and I am all set to dress," he said.

Balchen had been provided by Dr. Gibbons, representative of Rodman Wanamaker, with half-woolen shirts and was now calling vigorously for a shirt.

In the next room Bert Acosta lay in bed smoking a cigarette while a chubby French masseur (Continued on Page 8.)

MISS BELLAMY IN STAR ROLE AT CALIFORNIA

Proceeding upon the assumption that New York City offers endless opportunities for romantic fiction, Irving Cummings, Fox Films director, has laid the scene of "The Sewing Machine Girl" starring Madge Bellamy, in the exact center of the largest and busiest city in America.

This picture, packed with happy romance and giving Miss Bellamy excellent opportunities for the exercise of her dramatic talents, will be the screen feature of the California Theater today, in conjunction with five acts of grandville.

Allen Simpson, who scored a hit with Virginia Valli in "The Family Heiress," is cast as Roy Davis, an unassuming clerk who succeeds in exposing the inner workings of a crooked tin headed by Jules Morton.

Morton, played by Paul Nicholson, as the manager of the Diana Lingerie Company, has been systematically robbing the firm until Miss Bellamy appears. She has been employed in an East Side sweatshop but enters the service of the lingerie company as a switchboard operator. Later she is transferred to the display room, serving as a model.

Eventually she aids Roy in exposing Morton. She then finds that Roy is a son of the former owner of the plant.

Cummings uses the Hudson, New York Harbor, downtown Broadway, upper Broadway, Harlem, the Bronx and Flatbush in many of the exciting episodes.

The cast includes Paul Nicholson, Arthur Housman, Sally Phillips, J. Farrell McDonald, Anita Garvin, Harry Bailey and others.

Other features on the same program include "Hot Cookies," a comedy sketch, Fox News; "The California Girl," and "Lucky Charlie," the organ.

UNIQUE RECORD IS ESTABLISHED BY WHIPPET SIX

But, it is not the only record made by the Whippet Six. It is the only record made by a car of its class in the world.

The record was made on a long stretch of nearly level, straight road, demonstrating the Whippet Six's ability to maintain speed and efficiency of the four valves mechanical engine, according to Strom.

Nevertheless, even with the driver and load stop at the end of the stretch, and a new record every place of the mile performance.

"On a flying start, she averaged 60 miles an hour," Strom says. "The Whippet Six averaged a top speed of sixty miles per hour. Near the end of the first mile a stop was made. From the mile a minute speed the car was brought to a standstill in a fraction over six seconds. In making other stops the Whippet Six decelerated from an average of sixty miles an hour to a stop in five seconds. Starts were made instantly and the car accelerated to sixty miles per hour in every second.

"Starting and stopping every mile the car kept in this program for twenty-five miles of the nearly level concrete highway. Time was taken out for turning the car and the return trip started. Approximately the same results were obtained and at the completion of the fifty miles, it was found that the stop watches read exactly 1:27. The three seconds were allowed by the officials as time for the turning of the car.

"The Whippet Six performed beautifully and made the last leg of the journey as easily as the first. The car was brought to a full stop at the finish just as smoothly and quickly as at the end of the first mile. The terrific strain put on the brakes did not affect them in the least or have any tendency to change the equality of the engine. The car was used as a test of the Whippet Six's ability to maintain speed and efficiency of the four valves mechanical engine, according to Strom.

The record was made on a long stretch of nearly level, straight road, demonstrating the Whippet Six's ability to maintain speed and efficiency of the four valves mechanical engine, according to Strom.

Nevertheless, even with the driver and load stop at the end of the stretch, and a new record every place of the mile performance.

"On a flying start, she averaged 60 miles an hour," Strom says. "The Whippet Six averaged a top speed of sixty miles per hour. Near the end of the first mile a stop was made. From the mile a minute speed the car was brought to a standstill in a fraction over six seconds. In making other stops the Whippet Six decelerated from an average of sixty miles an hour to a stop in five seconds. 367 Busses in Minnesota carry 11,000,000 passengers annually

1926 will be the biggest year to date for motor bus travel in the Northwest, according to Edgar F. Zelle, president of the Minnesota Motor Bus Association, testifying before the Interstate Commerce Commission hearings in St. Paul. Traffic is now being carried at the rate of 11,000,000 passengers annually. Further data on motor bus growth in the United States will be presented at the I. C. C. hearings in Washington, D. Due to a blown-out piston head the La Torraca Special driven by John La Torraca of the Speedway garage was put out of the running in the San Jose races, June 24. La Torraca has overhauled the car and will enter it in the races at San Jose, July 4. He will compete for a silver cup in the classification race which only admits cars making 80 miles per hour or over.

When the piston head blew out the car was making about 90 miles per hour and was in a fair way of winning the race, La Torraca says. With the motor overhauled, he is confident that he will be able to take away some of the purse in his coming race.

The new La Franz motor company which is handling the Hummobile, reports a good attendance of the public to their showroom to examine the two Hummobile sedans on display. The company has a complete line of parts, and has provided expert service for Hummobile owners. Lee Moller, a factory trained mechanic, has charge of the shop.

If you want to keep your car in top condition, pull up the seat, spread out the blankets that is if it is a good coupe such as is on display by David Rose, Inc., Ford dealer. The alterations to make your Ford coupe a small Pullman are slight, Rose says, and give a six and one half foot bed with room for two people. When the bed is folded up there is still room in the back compartment for baggage. Pick up your bed and ride!

say Buick will be their next car

A general and impartial survey of automobile owners recently conducted by a great organization, shows that 344,679 owners of other cars intend to change to Buick next time they buy a car.

These owners have compared their cars with Buick—in performance, in economy, in comfort, luxury and dependability. And they have decided that Buick offers greater value.

They have driven Buicks, and know the flexibility, power and efficiency of Buick's famous six-cylinder Valve-in-Head engine, which is vibrationless beyond belief at any speed.

Examine a Buick at your earliest opportunity. Find out why so many owners of other cars are changing to Buick every day.

NEW NASH CARS ATTRACT GREAT APPROVAL HERE

Three entirely new series of cars, including 21 models in four different chassis lengths, together with price reductions ranging as high as $185 have been announced by H. P. Huddleston, Inc., local Nash dealers.

This is "the greatest Nash announcement" heralded in one of the most unique newspaper advertising campaigns for which the Bay Cities have been eagerly waiting for the past several days. According to Huddleston, never in the car's history has there been such widespread public interest in a Nash announcement.

"We feel that this interest has been more than justified by the scope of this latest Nash achievement," said Huddleston. "Reduced to a few words, it means a greater automobile for less money—an accomplishment in keeping with the reputation of C. W. Nash, being one of the most aggressive leaders in the automotive industry."

The new series will be known as the Advance Six, the Special Six and the Standard Six with a wide array of improvements. A new radiator design, lower and more sweeping body lines and a brilliant array of new color combinations make these new models without question the most beautiful ever produced by Nash, and the cars fully justify reports which have been current for the last week that Nash would introduce an array of cars which would command nation wide praise.

Important mechanical refinements and improvements are also announced at this time, keeping pace with the progress which has been made in increasing the beauty of the car's appearance. Outstanding among these are the introduction of new springs of a secret alloy steel which is said to increase riding comfort in a amazing degree.

The new body lines are lower and more sweeping than ever before and the wheels are smaller, giving an additional appearance of lowness to the cars although interior roominess has not been sacrificed in the smallest degree.

March 14, 1926.

For over a year I had trouble in my gall bladder, pain on my right side, vomiting and a general run-down condition. On Feb. 23rd of this year I had an attack of Appendicitis, the pain of which was so severe that I could not sleep at night. I came to the Chew & Chew Herbs and after taking one dose of their herbs I was greatly relieved. I continued to take the herbs for a few weeks and I am all well.

REPUTATION IS EMPHASIZED AS "HUP" FACTOR

A firm known for fair dealing and with a good reputation in its community has an asset equally as valuable as the reputation of the car it handles in today's automobile buying world, according to George Martin, sales manager for the new La Franz Motor company, Hummobile representative in Richmond.

These and other points were brought out this week as factors which have attended the success of both the Hummobile eight and six cylinders in the last year in a given to made by Martin regarding Hummobile's standing in today's automobile market.

"No matter how magnificent a car itself may be, unless its maker has a desirable reputation the public is sure to be hesitant in accepting it," he said. "In other words, the name of the manufacturer of an automobile bears the same relation to the acceptance of that car that the endorser's name bears to a note or check.

"The secrets of good or bad cars are in the engineering, metallurgical, manufacturing and production divisions of the various motor car companies. Today it is absolutely possible to foretell in advance of a car's appearance on the market whether that car will prove, at the end of two, three or five years' service, to have been a good or a poor car. The quality of steels, type of engineering and design, appearance, comfort and conveniences of body remain today the most desirable attributes that can be enjoyed by a motor car."

The Invisible Difference in Automobiles

WHEN you buy a car the thing you can't see in motor, chassis, or body is the responsibility of the dealer who sells it to you. This becomes apparent in the days and weeks which follow when you enjoy satisfaction in ownership or you do not, according to local facilities for serving the needs of your car.

EXPERT MECHANICAL SERVICE

Efficiency Vital to The Customer

Very well we know how much abused is the word efficiency as applied to the average garage. And yet we venture to use it in referring to our work. We do not claim to be 100% nor the best in the business. But we do claim to have a sincere interest in our work and we know the average customer is willing to take care of us when we take care of him. And we know we possess the equipment and the ability and the desire to do the job as it should be done and at a fair price. Efficiency is merely a matter of doing the work the right way and in the shortest possible time. It requires proper tools and a fundamental understanding of motor car construction.

HANSEN TAKES LEAD IN S. O. BATTING RACE

JOHN HUZEFKA, FITZGERALD IN HITTING SPURT

Hitting the ball at a sensational clip for the past three weeks, Elmer Hansen, Refinery outfielder, has jumped from fourth to first place in the 1927 race for Standard Oil league batting honors.

Hansen has an impressive average of .464 for eight games, including those of last week. The Refiner has been hitting the astat hard and often, averaging two hits a game for the past three weeks.

Peters in Slump
Ernie Peters, leading hitter of the league when the averages were issued at the end of the first month's play, has slumped considerably and is now in fifth position with an average of .381. Peters started with his long distance hitting early in the season, but his batting has fallen off considerably during the past few weeks.

Following close on Hansen's heels, comes Johnny Huzefka, All Standard outfielder, who is tied with Gene Fitzgerald of the Barrel House for second place, each having an average of .429. Huzefka has been hitting the ball so hard of late that he has been shifted to the clean-up position in the All Standard batting order.

Gene Fitzgerald Stars
The best hitting performance of the past month was turned in by Gene Fitzgerald, who only a month ago was far down in the standings with an average of .300. Now he is tied with Huzefka for second-place honors with an average of .429. If he keeps up his brilliant pace he should be at the top before many more games have passed.

Billy Lane, former Seattle Indian, seems to have at last struck his stride and is hitting at a .407 clip. The little Mechanic outfielder is one of the most dangerous men in the league to pitch to and figures to be around the top before the season closes.

Johnson Hitting Sixth
Ernie Peters is followed in sixth place by Red Johnson of the Refiners, who slumped from .450 to .375 since the averages were first issued. Johnson's work in the field has been especially brilliant, the little sorreltopped outfielder cutting off many hits by his fast fielding.

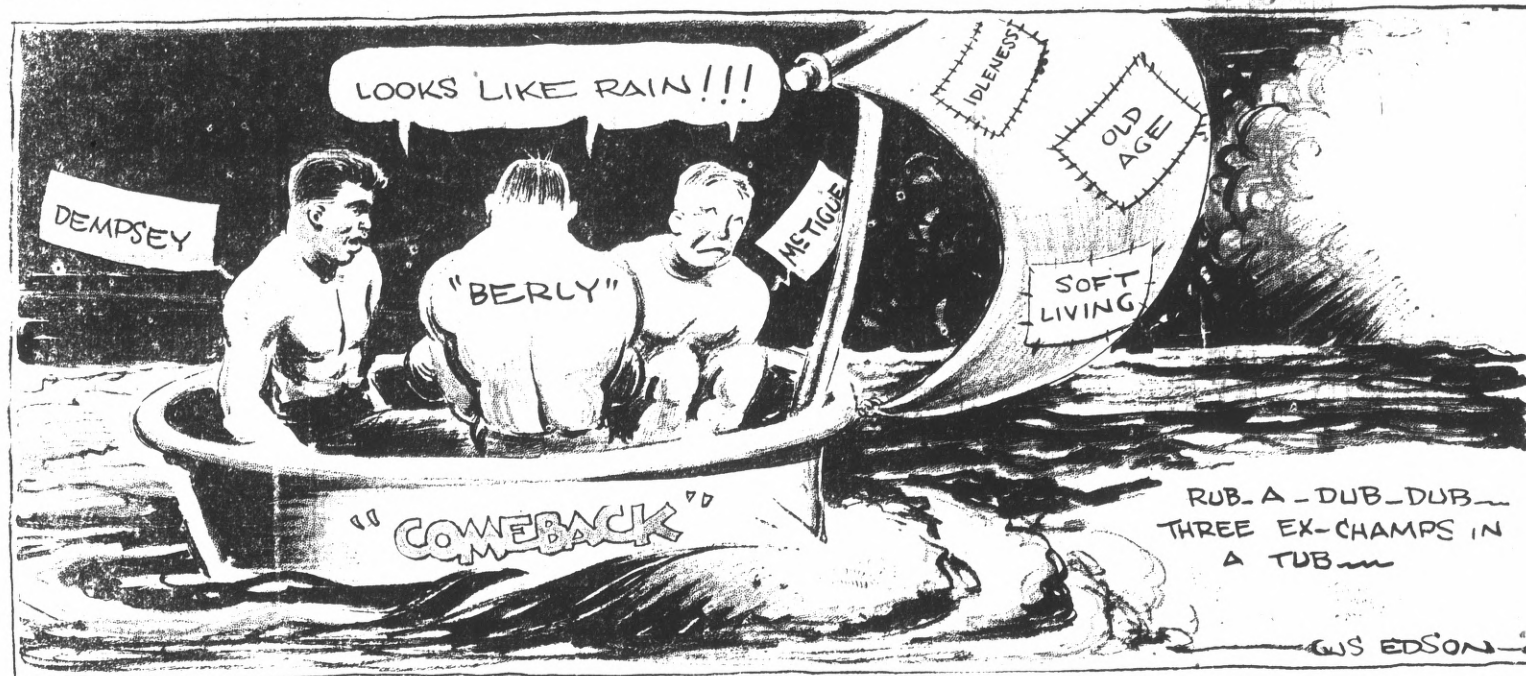

Dode Carson, scrappy little All Standard shortstop, jumped from .300 to .345 in the past month of play. Carson is little of stature but he swings a heavy bat that connects with a regularity that has swept him up into seventh place among the hitters.

Batting Race Close
The present batting race is one of the hottest ever staged in the Standard Oil circuit. Hansen, the leader, has made only one more hit than Huzefka and Fitzgerald, who are tied for second. Even Dode Carson in seventh place could advance materially by going on a hitting spree for a game or two. Carson could pass Hansen in a single game if the latter went hitless on four trips to the plate, while Carson was connecting safely four times out of four. In such a tight battle for hitting supremacy almost anything is liable to happen to change the relative positions of the batters.

The standings of the seven leading hitters:

Player	AB.	H.	Pct.
Hansen (R)	28	13	.464
Huzefka (AS)	28	12	.429
Fitzgerald (BH)	28	12	.429
Lane (M)	27	11	.407
Peters (BH)	26	10	.384

MOTHER GOOSE BROUGHT UP TO DATE—

By Gus Edson

DAVE SHADE TO DEMPSEY FIGHT TRAIN DEMPSEY POSTPONEMENT SEEN POSSIBLE

Dave Shade, former Richmond boy and considered one of the leading contenders for the welterweight championship of the world, yesterday joined Jack Dempsey's training camp at Saratoga Lake.

The California welterweight, one of the cleverest of weaving fighters, will act more as a coach than as a sparring partner in aiding Jack to work back into his former fighting style.

"Shade will show me what is wrong with the way I weave," the former champion said today. "You know how it is when one of your golf shots is off that you can't tell what has happened. You watch someone else do it right and bingo—it's back again."

Dempsey had his final rest yesterday before swinging into the last three weeks of intensive training. Early in the morning he was on the road for an hour and a half, later rowing for an hour on the lake. Boxing was taboo, however, and during the hot afternoon Jack loafed on the veranda of Tom Luther's hotel and gossiped with the newspapermen.

The rest was welcomed not only by Dempsey, who is perfectly satisfied with his condition at this stage of the training grind, but to the sparring partners, who have taken quite a buffeting in the last four boxing sessions. Carl Carper, Chicago negro heavy-weight, is nursing bruised lips, and Eddy McMullin, a willing middleweight from New York, a sore and twisted nose. Dempsey's left hook inflicted the damage in both cases.

WILLS-ALVAREZ TOURNEY FINDS HELEN VICTOR

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., July 2.—A postponement of the Dempsey Sharkey fight, scheduled for July 21, because of the tragedy which came into Jack Dempsey's life today.

His brother, Johnny, shot and killed his wife and then committed suicide in Schenectady, forcing Dempsey to rush to that town and abandon all training plans for the day.

It is feared by Dempsey's handlers that the shock of his brother's death will be such that it will be impossible for him to concentrate on training for more than a week and, inasmuch as Dempsey needed every day between now and July 21, to get into fighting condition, his handlers undoubtedly will ask that a date be named sometime in August.

The ex-champion has spent a small fortune trying to correct various physical and mental ailments of his brother Johnny, but without success. Johnny's mind began to falter about two years ago and he was examined by mental experts.

On Wednesday night Johnny, assumed to be in California by Jack and those in charge of his camp, put in appearance here, he wanted to see his fighting brother but, because Johnny was carrying two revolvers, the handlers of the ex-champion carefully balked Johnny's plans to see Jack and he left town without Jack knowing he had been around.

On Friday afternoon, Joe Ben Janin, the Pacific Coast light-weight and one of Dempsey's pals here, received a telegram from Jack's mother, sent from Salt Lake, she asked that Joe look up Johnny at once, because "he seems to be in need of immediate assistance."

Benjamin planned to go to see Johnny Friday evening, but something interfered with his plans. Dempsey was notified of the death of his brother near noon today and left at once with Leo P. Flynn and Dave Shade to identify the body and to make arrangements to have his brother's body shipped back to Salt Lake.

The ex-champion, upon his return from Schenectady said that he was a little too broken up to do any talking about his future plans in a definite way.

"This was a pretty hard blow," he said, "I don't figure on doing any boxing Sunday and perhaps won't do any Monday. Maybe I will go right back to work after that—maybe not. As to a postponement, well, I haven't had time to think about that. All that belongs to the future—and Leo P. Flynn."

Refuses $50,000 For Race Horse

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The most valuable two-months colt in the world is owned by Admiral Carey T. Grayson, of this city, who recently refused an offer of $50,000 for the animal.

The colt is the son of Man O' War, the greatest thoroughbred of all time. His mother is North Star III, the sire of Bubbling Over, last year's Kentucky derby winner, Baggenbaggage and other noted race horses.

The colt takes after its illustrious parent, experts having pronounced him the image of Man O' War. Admiral Grayson says the colt is not for sale.

The backlines in the first set, they were beating up chalk in the second. Serving with cyclonic force and following each thrust to the net for the kill the Spanish girl, swept along at even terms with Helen, who was playing one of the headiest games of her career.

It was the clever generalship of the American that settled the issue after the count had reached three all in the second set. Realizing that the Spanish player, at her present form, was her equal, she set about wearing down her dynamic opponent.

Playing the old cat and mouse game, which Suzanne Lenglen first made famous, Helen chased her energetic opponent from one sideline to the other with drives that were placed with rifle bullet accuracy. Both players won a game, but the strategy of Miss Wills' generalship was soon apparent, for, in the ninth game, the willing but over-eager Spanish girl was so spent that she could scarcely raise her racquet.

Helen quickly took the next two games for victory. Cochet proved conclusively that his victory over Tilden was no flash in the pan when he came from behind to win from the brilliant Borotra, who had accounted for his countryman, Lacoste. Borotra was four times within set and match point, but Cochet displayed that same bulldog tenacity and power in the pinch which had characterized his astounding defeat of Bill Tilden.

Many critics who witnessed the Wills-Alvarez match declared that Helen, on the form displayed today, could have defeated Suzanne Lenglen at her best.

TAD LUCAS TO DEFEND RIDING CHAMPIONSHIP

By JOHN T. LAMBERT (By Universal Service)
BELLE FOURCHE, S. D. July 2.—Tad Lucas today flicked the dust off her high-heeled riding boots with a leather quilt, gave a slow tug at the bandanna handkerchief around her neck and modestly allowed that if she wins the track riding contest again next week it will be the crowning achievement of her wonderful career.

This handsome brunette of twenty-three, who, in her civies, is as sweet and demure as any Broadway flapper, came north from her Texas ranch three years ago and has successively won the national championship against the most daring riders, men as well as women, that the plains and ranches of the west have ever produced.

And Tad, in common with all the other champs, will display her stuff here on Tuesday in the presence of no less than the President and Mrs. Coolidge. Never before has a president patronized the great tri-state round-up. Record-breaking crowds are anticipated.

That infield will cost them the pennant if Ruth, Gehrig and Lazzari go into any considerable slump. Gehrig is not a high-class defensive player. Dugan is old enough right now to play on the Athletics and Gazella, utility infielder, is below championship team caliber. Morehart, Lazzari and Koenig are good defensive men, but first base and third base are in and out. If the Yanks lose their punch and have to depend on tight defensive play, that infield will crack.

Inasmuch as the Doc is traveling with the Athletics, it might be suspected that the wish is father to the thought here.

Watts Gunn Wins Collegiate Golf
(By Universal Service)
GARDEN CITY, N. Y., July 2.—Watts Gunn, of Georgia Tech, and a protégé of Bobby Jones, is the new intercollegiate champion. He took the title this afternoon by overwhelming Ronald Mackenzie, of Brown, ten up and nine to go.

Winning the qualifying medal with a score of 302, Gunn scored a brilliant 69, which is four under par, this morning, securing a ten hole lead, and retained that lead this afternoon when he turned in 68 for the nine holes he played. Mackenzie won but two holes of the entire twenty-seven.

WANTS WANTED—RECORD-HERALD
By Stafford

Ed Sullivan's SPORT WHIRL

Suzanne, Ruth and Gate Receipts
Three have been certain sporting beliefs which have had wide circulation in the past.
One was to the effect that Suzanne Lenglen was bigger than tennis itself.

Another was that Babe Ruth was bigger than baseball.
I do not believe that the person making those remarks ran any immediate risk of decapitation, the process of making one head disappear where one had flourished before. It was generally agreed that the tennis championships held annually at Wimbledon were just a set of tennis matches minus Suzanne; likewise it was felt that customers would not go to Col. Jake Rupert's vineyard and remain contented if Ruth did not appear in each of nine innings.

It was the observant John Kieran who first commented upon the Wimbledon advance sale some weeks back. The reservations made in advance for the Wimbledon tourney exceeded in volume the reservations made in other years, when Suzanne was the belle of the tennis ball.

Wimbledon has proved that the advance sale was an accurate barometer. The crowds which have flocked to see Betty Nuthall and Helen Wills have established new gate records.

Tennis has proved the old adage that the game is bigger than its brightest stars. Suzanne has not ruined the box office.

Over the week-end the Yanks played the Philadelphia Athletics who are in their baseball dotage. By actual count 110,000 persons saw the teams play Saturday and Sunday.

Babe Ruth played perhaps three innings of the twenty-seven played. Only one fan went to the box office to demand a refund of his dough. He was properly indignant at the deception practiced upon him. "You can't fool me," he told Ed Barrow, "that there ain't the Palestine-Indiana Flooring soccer game. I know my onions."

No one apparently missed the halt and lame Babe Ruth. The Gehrigs and Lazzaris have come along very fast.

Another View of the Yanks
Bill Brandt, called "Doc," out of consideration for his early try at horse doctoring, is one of the veteran writers traveling with the Philadelphia Athletics. He became associated with Connie Mack's White-washed Elephants when he became convinced that the auto was here to stay and that a horse doctor would be as out of place as a gold tooth in a tennis racket.

Brandt, like most veterinarians, has horse sense. Since he stopped tinkering with underslung mustangs and indisposed cab yankers he has developed plenty of baseball savvy. I was interested in what he had to say about baseball in general.

"It is against all the legends of baseball, I might say the statistics of baseball," said he hoarsely, "for a team to hit over a stretch the way the Yankees have been slugging."

"If their hitting falls off, the Yankees are licked."
That infield will cost them the pennant if Ruth, Gehrig and Lazzari go into any considerable slump. Gehrig is not a high-class defensive player. Dugan is old enough right now to play on the Athletics and Gazella, utility infielder, is below championship team caliber. Morehart, Lazzari and Koenig are good defensive men, but first base and third base are in and out. If the Yanks lose their punch and have to depend on tight defensive play, that infield will crack.

Inasmuch as the Doc is traveling with the Athletics, it might be suspected that the wish is father to the thought here.

Keep quiet Son, the Otter is teaching her babies to swim. At first the youngsters are afraid but she takes them on her back and swims into the deep water letting them roll off, then they will have to swim to keep from sinking.

Here she is teaching them to toboggan down a clay bank into the water. They have no sled, but turn their forepaws backward and lie down at the top of the slide, then let themselves go.

They are playing tag; into the water and out again they go; one chasing the other until he or she is "tag"

HEART TROUBLE
Marvelously Relieved

While visiting her daughter here in Oakland, Mrs. W. H. Morton of Stockton was in such great pain due to Heart Trouble that it affected her left hand. She could neither walk nor rest with the slightest comfort. All the physicians whom she consulted expressed the opinion that she had not more than ten days to live. She truly seemed to be at the point of death when she took her first package of the Fong Wan Herbs. It was cooked for her at home, and that night she had the first rest after many weeks of terrible suffering. After four weeks of the Fong Wan Herb Treatment, she was able to return to her home in Stockton. From that city she has sent the following testimonial to the Fong Wan Herbs:

OWES HER LIFE TO FONG WAN HERBS
Stockton, March 21, 1927.
To the Fong Wan Herb Co.: I have been a sufferer with valvular trouble of the heart for some time. I became so ill that my doctors, who were many, gave me but a week or ten days to live. I decided to try the Fong Wan Herb Co., and to the amazement of all who attended me, I was able to walk to their office after taking the Herbs one week. I have now taken them four weeks and I not only have a good heart, but have also been helped in other ailments. I cannot speak too highly of the Fong Wan Herbs, as I owe my life to them. I am very grateful to Fong Wan for his kindness.

CHICAGO, July 1.—Chicago flappers and those would-be had the action of the city health department today to dress so lightly as to "hook em."

"Hook 'em if they will be hooked," said Dr. Herman Bunker, health commissioner, "but I mean keep cool."

He pointed out that in torrid weather, it is necessary to use a fan, means to reduce excess heat.

authorities started their wild dash across the mountains to Kern county in order that Watson, who for the five years he has been in the valley is said to have been openly fighting the Los Angeles water commission, might be safely taken to another county before Owens river ranchers, who report he has traveled armed much of the time, might be swayed by sympathy and infuriated to the point of attempting to secure by force the release for Watson.

Up hill and down dale, over mountain ridges and across rivers, along the narrow tortuous roads, carved out of the sheer cliff, which the river made a thousand or more feet below Sheriff Hutchison drove his car at break neck speed reaching 20 miles an hour at times. Hutchison seemed to think little of it, accustomed as he is to his home mountains and knows the roads, but for Veale, Watson and Laird it was a true "ride for life" and the trio were unanimous in having a sigh of relief when they alighted from the sheriff's car at Bakersfield.

But the ride of the officers to Martinez from Inyo county apparently had nothing for thrills on the trip which A. J. Betker took to Bakersfield with Major Watson in the latter's car.

Explosive In Car

In the tonneau of Watson's car were stored 400 pounds of 100 per cent blasting gelatin, the highest form of dynamite known, 200 pounds of TNT and a supply of fulminate of mercury percussion caps. So chary was Watson, who by past experience, experience made and his development of explosive caps was thoroughly aware of the danger that he laid over on the trip one day to avoid driving along the highway, crowded with cars on Sunday and asked Betker to carry the mercury caps in his lap.

When Betker started from Bakersfield with Watson, his acquaintance of several years, he says he little dreamed of the danger which he was inviting and of the veritable volcano on which he was seated all the way on the return trip.

Betker even declined to tell his wife what Watson's car when the latter parked at the Betker home for the lay-over until Monday, May 16 but she had her suspicions that the boxes did not contain groceries and took a look.

JUST A LAUGH OR TWO

A gulleless city man wandered through the country with his rod over his shoulder seeking out a promising place to toss a fly. He soon came to a pond, near the edge of which was a sign that said: "No fishing." The city man scratched his head as he gazed at these words, but finally sat down on the shore and was surprised at the number of bites he got. Pretty soon the game warden came along and cried out: "Hey, there! Don't you see that sign?"

"Of course I do," answered the city man.

"Well," continued the warden, "don't you see it says: 'No fishing?'"

"Yes, but it's away off. There's a bully fishing here. Just look at all I have caught."

Mother Kills Five Tots And Herself

FEARFUL OF A FORCED SEPARATION from her five small children, Mrs. Marie Freeman, her mind distorted from sorrow, flooded her modest apartment at Whitehouse, L. I., with gas, snuffing out the lives of the little ones as well as her own. Her husband was killed some time ago in an accident to a resident and left his family practically penniless. Top photo shows four of the dead children, Ted, for daughter, 7; Kate, 4; and Marie, 3. Photo (lower left) shows Mrs. Freeman's body being carried from home. Photo shows Mrs. Freeman and her youngest son, Joseph, aged 2.

"Why, I've known Bill for years and years; ever since we were in school here together. If I am going to marry anyone it is Bill. But an announcement must wait. You see, I am leaving here in three weeks to go to New York, and from there we are going to Europe."
"We are waiting because Bill wants to get a little further along. You know he is out at Mack Sennett's and he is doing very well. But when we get through in Europe we are coming back home to make another picture, and I hope to get married, settle down and have a lot of children."
